REMARKS

This is UNEVALUATED Information

1. Between 8 a.m. and 9 a.m. on 26 April 1954, source observed that Goetzendorf (P 49/33 U:XP 1818) airfield was unoccupied and that there were no indications of an intended occupation.
2. No Soviet soldiers or Soviet dependents were quartered in Goetzendorf military post. The dwellings on the ground floor of the weaving mill which, on 22 April 1954, had allegedly been renovated for the Soviets were now occupied by Austrian civilians. No Soviet troops were observed in Margarethen/Moos (P 49/33 U: XP 1922) or in the former castle which was previously occupied by Soviet soldiers. The castle was still blocked.

Comment: Goetzendorf airfield is still unoccupied as was previously observed.

1. [REDACTED] the Kenyeri (P48/Y00)

[REDACTED] airfield [REDACTED] Jet aircraft were repeatedly observed flying over the field. During the summer of 1953, the villages of Kenyeri and Venoock (P48/Y00) were being vacated by Soviet Air Force personnel who were allegedly assembled in a camp in a wood adjacent to the airfield. [REDACTED] Soviet jet 25X1 fighters were stationed at the field and that construction work was under way at the installation.<sup>1</sup>

3. [REDACTED] Air Force Major Istvan Nagy was the commanding officer at Székesfehérvár airfield in 1953.

25X1

1. [REDACTED] Comment: It appears credible that Kenyeri airfield is occupied by a Soviet fighter unit. Several previous reports contained information indicating the possible occupation of the airfield by Soviet troops. Improvement work at the field was previously reported. [REDACTED]

25X1

2. [REDACTED] Comment: Szombathely airfield is known as a commercial airfield. Expansion work at the field is reported for the first time.
